OFFICE OF PETITIONS

PETITION TO WITHDRAW HOLDING OF ABANDONMENT
UNDER 37 C.F.R. § 1.181(a)

Responsive to the Notice of Abandonment mailed 14 April 2008, please find applicant's Petition to Withdraw the Holding of Abandonment and supporting documents, as follows:

Remarks/Arguments begin on page 2 of this paper.

Appendices attached following page 4 of this paper, including:

Appendix A - USPTO fax confirmation of receipt of RCE and Preliminary Amendment;

Appendix B - a Public PAIR printout from the Transaction History for application number 10/715,871, showing USPTO initiation of processing of applicant's RCE on 28 November 2007;

Appendix C - a Public PAIR printout of the File Wrapper for incorrect application number 11/715,871 to which applicant's submitted documents were erroneously recorded, showing applicants submitted documents received and recorded on 28 November 2007; and,

Appendix D - copies of applicant's submitted documents, printed from the Public PAIR File Wrapper of incorrect application number 11/715,871, each bearing a USPTO-applied stamp confirming receipt on 28 November 2007.

REMARKS

Applicant hereby requests and petitions for withdrawal of the holding of abandonment of the application identified above based upon the facts presented below. Applicant respectfully submits that the holding of abandonment was improper and caused entirely by errors of the Office.

History:

Applicant received a Final Office Action dated 31 July 2007 from the USPTO. After filing an After Final Office Action (17 August 2007) and a Pre-Appeal Brief (7 September 2007), and receiving a Notice of Panel Decision (dated 2 November 2007) from the Office, applicant timely filed by facsimile, on 28 November 2007, each of a Request for Continued Examination (RCE) and a Preliminary Amendment with a request and proper fee for a one month extension of time. Applicant's facsimile cover sheet included the message, "Please find following a Request for Continued Examination, Preliminary Amendment and Request for Extension of time for patent application no. 11/715,871".

Subsequently, on 9 April 2008, applicant received a telephone call from Examiner Hoekstra, asking if this application had been intentionally abandoned by applicant. Applicant was surprised, and stated that there was no intent whatsoever to abandon the application, and asked the basis for the abandonment. Examiner Hoekstra informed applicant that the abandonment was caused by a failure to respond to an Office Action within the statutory period for response. Applicant informed Examiner Hoekstra that such reply in the form of an RCE and Preliminary Amendment had been timely filed on 28 November 2007, and was received by the Office as indicated a received facsimile confirmation and an entry in Public PAIR. Examiner Hoekstra informed the applicant that no such documents appeared in the file wrapper, and suggested that they may have been scanned and associated with a different application number.

Applicant inquired as to the appropriate actions to take to have applicant's 28 November 2007 submission properly processed and acted upon by the Office. Examiner Hoekstra informed applicant that a Petition to Revive for Unintentional Abandonment must be submitted, along with all of the previously submitted materials, including the RCE, Preliminary Amendment, and extension of time request, along with any materials supporting applicant's petition.

Applicant subsequently received a Notice of Abandonment dated 14 April 2008 which incorrectly indicated that the "Application is abandoned in view of: No reply has been received". However, the Office's records disprove this assertion.

Relevant Facts:

Shortly after submitting the above listed materials by facsimile, applicant received a “return receipt confirmation of the facsimile transmission” (receive confirmation) from the Office (see attached) in the form of an “Auto-Reply Facsimile Transmission”. The receipt confirmation specified that sixteen (16) pages were received by the Office at 2:58PM (EST) on 28 November 2007 (see APPENDIX A). Within a reasonable time following applicant’s submission of the RCE and other listed materials, applicant confirmed at the ‘Transaction History’ page of Public PAIR the following entry, “11-28-2007 Workflow – Request for RCE – Begin”, (see APPENDIX B). Thus, applicant reasonably believed processing of applicant’s submission had begun, although applicant understood that a subsequent Office Action would not be forthcoming within a particularly defined period of time.

Additionally, the USPTO Deposit Account Statement for applicant’s representative’s deposit account (#012704) shows that on 29 November 2007, both the $405 RCE fee and the $60 extension of time fee were withdrawn from applicant’s representative’s deposit account. This activity proves that documents included in applicant’s facsimile transmission were received and acted upon by at least one department within the Office.

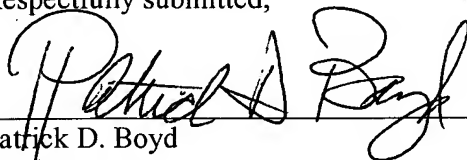

Although the Public PAIR system clearly shows that the request for RCE was received on 28 November 2007, Public PAIR does not show any of the received documents having been entered into the Image File Wrapper. However, applicant searched Public PAIR for the submitted documents, and located all sixteen pages of applicant’s RCE, Preliminary Amendments, and related documents submitted on 28 November 2007. These documents are erroneously associated with, and found in the File Wrapper (see APPENDIX C) of application number, 11/715,871 (rather than applicant’s application number 10/715,871).

Applicant has reviewed each of the submitted documents, and confirmed that each includes the correct application number (10/715,871) with the exception of the facsimile cover sheet (see APPENDIX D). Thus, inasmuch as the Office failed to associate each document with the application number correctly identified thereupon, applicant did not cause the loss of the documents following their complete and successful transmission to the Office. The presence of applicant’s submitted documents on Public PAIR, albeit erroneously associated with an unrelated application number, conclusively proves that applicant timely filed a full and complete response to the 2 November 2007 Office Action, and that the holding of abandonment was improper and caused entirely by inadvertent errors of the Office.

CONCLUSION

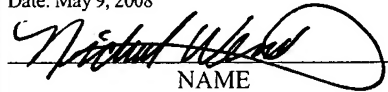

Accordingly, applicant respectfully requests and petitions for withdrawal of the holding of abandonment of the application number 10/715,871, and requests that prosecution reopen and continue without further delays. The Examiner is encouraged to telephone the undersigned at (503) 226-1191 if it appears that an interview would be helpful in advancing the case.

Respectfully submitted,

Patrick D. Boyd
